ESKIMO MANAGEMENT

HUGH CAMPBELL

PRESIDENT AND C.E.O.

Hugh Campbell has enjoyed success at every level of professional football: as a player, coach, general manager and in his current role as president and CEO of the Edmonton Eskimos. In recognition of his achievements, Hugh will be inducted into the builders category of the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in September 2000.

Strongly committed to the Canadian Football League, Hugh has taken an active role in improving areas such as player pensions, safety, health and per diems. Perhaps best known as head coach of the Eskimos "Five in a Row" dynasty teams, Campbell was at the centre of the Eskimos greatest era. He was named head coach in 1977 and went on to lead the team to the still unbroken CFL record of six straight first place finishes and six consecutive Grey Cup appearances. His regular season coaching record of 70 wins, 21 losses and 5 ties remains the best percentage in CFL history. In 14 trips to the Grey Cup as a player, coach and general manager, Hugh has been on the winning side 8 times.

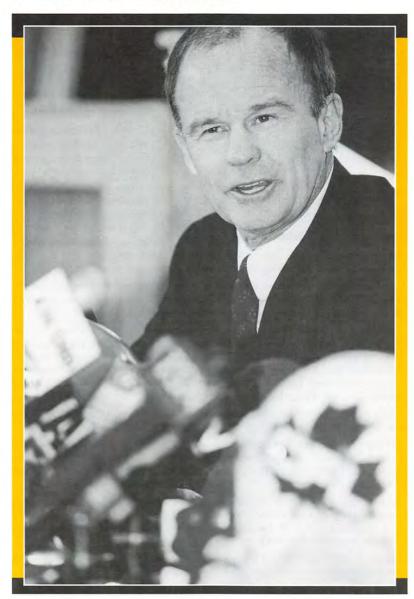

In 1982, Hugh left Edmonton for the fledgling United States Football League. After one season as coach of the Los Angeles Express, he was named head coach of the NFL's Houston Oilers where he was reunited with former Eskimo quarterback Warren Moon. Hugh spent the 1984 & '85 seasons with Houston. He returned to Edmonton in 1986 as the teams' general manager, a post he held until 1997. Campbell was named President and CEO in 1997.

A native of San Jose, California, Hugh was a star wide receiver at Washington State University from 1959 to 1962. Hugh was named MVP in the East - West Shrine Game and Coaches All-American game and he also played in the College All-Star game and the Hula Bowl. He graduated from Washington State with Bachelor of Science in Education and Physical Education degrees and a Masters degree.

Hugh was drafted in 1963 by the San Francisco 49'ers and the Oakland Raiders of the old AFL. Hugh ended up playing for Saskatchewan. As a surehanded receiver for six seasons (1963 - '67 and 1969), "Gluey Hughie" put up some outstanding numbers including 60 career touchdown receptions; 17 of those in one season and 5,245 career receiving yards. He appeared in the Grey Cup in each of his last three seasons as a player.

In addition to his duties with the Eskimos, Hugh is the CEO of the Edmonton Trapper Baseball Club - Triple A affiliate of the Anaheim Angels. The Edmonton Eskimo Football Club purchased the Trappers in 1999. Hugh is also on the Board of Directors and is chair of the Tickets and Merchandise division of Edmonton 2001 World Championship in Athletics. Hugh and Louise Campbell take an active role in the community with their work on several projects, including the Carnival of Champions and the Casino of Champions.

TOM HIGGINS

 GENERAL MANAGER AND C.O.O.

Tom Higgins is in his third season as the Eskimo General Manager and C.O.O. He joined the Green and Gold in 1993 and spent his first four seasons with the club as the assistant general manager of operations.

Tom got his start in CFL coaching and administration during his 9 seasons (1983 - '92) with the Calgary Stampeders where he served as special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at various times during his tenure with the Stamps.

The native of Colonia, New Jersey is in charge of the day to day operations of the team including the administration of the player salary cap. Tom also oversees the presentation of Eskimo games at Commonwealth Stadium.

Tom is a strong supporter of the very successful Edmonton Minor Football program and has been instrumental in organizing evaluation camps and high school clinics, as well as the Varsity Stars 2000 program for Canadian university football players. Tom has taken a leadership role in increasing women's football knowledge through the Football 101 and 202 programs. Tom's wife Sharon is the chair of the Eskimos Gridiron Gal-a, a ladies only event featuring Eskimo players and coaches.

As a player, Tom was an All-Conference and All-American in both football and wrestling at North Carolina State and was captain of both teams.

His pro career started as a linebacker with Calgary in 1976. He then jumped to the Buffalo Bills of the NFL before returning to Canada in 1980 with the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Tom's father played in the NFL in the 1950's with Chicago and Philadelphia.

He retired as a player in 1980 and moved into the coaching ranks at Calgary's Crescent Heights High School. Tom coached with the University of Calgary Dinosaurs from 1982 - '84, helping the U of C to two conference championships and the Canadian title in 1983.

Away from football, Tom is a highly sought after motivational speaker who works with business and community groups helping them to achieve greater success.

Tom and his wife Sharon have three children Holly, Hillary and Thomas Russell.

HEAD COACH

DON MATTHEWS

- HEAD COACH
- DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

In 1999, Don Matthews achieved a professional milestone that may never be challenged. With a total of 177 wins to his credit, the native of Amesbury, Massachusetts moved past the legendary Frank Clair as the CFL coach with most the most career victories (regular season - 163, playoffs - 10 and Grey Cup - 4.) In his 20 seasons as both an assistant and as a head coach, Matthews' teams have made the post season an incredible 19 times.

Don served three years in the U.S. Marine Corps and joined the University of Idaho Vandals football team as a walk-on. By the time he graduated four years later, Matthews was team captain. He moved into the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant with Idaho and then held high school coaching positions in Nevada and Washington. He returned to Idaho in 1970, as the school's offensive coordinator and then took up the head post at Sunset High in Portland, leading the team to back to back state titles.

Matthews got his pro coaching start in 1977 as a linebacker coach with the Eskimos. The next season, Don became defensive coordinator and was part of the Eskimos five in a row dynasty team (1978 - '82). In 1983, he was named head coach of the B.C. Lions and took the Leos to their first Grey Cup in 19 years, only to lose to Toronto. Matthews led the Lions to the '85 Grey Cup, this time beating Hamilton at Montreal's Big O. For his role in the B.C. turnaround, Don earned the first of his Coach of the Year honours. In the five years Matthews was in B.C., the Lions finished first in the West four times.

In 1989, Matthews returned to Edmonton as a defensive coach, and quickly helped to build the CFL's best defence. He joined the Argos for the first time in 1990 and built an explosive offence around former Eskimo quarterback Matt Dunigan and Mike 'Pinball' Clemons. The Boatmen rang up 689 points and advanced to the Eastern final. Don spent one season as head coach of the Orlando Thunder of the WLAF and then returned to the CFL in 1991 to rebuild the Saskatchewan Roughriders. The 'Matthews magic' worked again - the 'Riders made the playoffs in 1992 & '93.

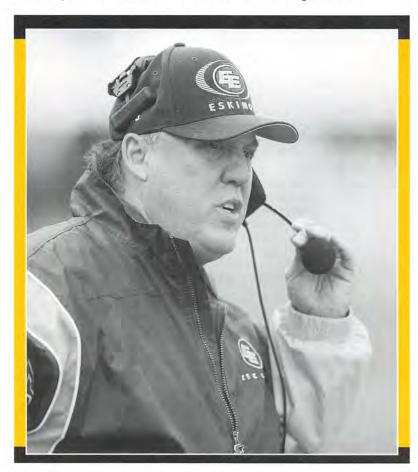

In 1994, Matthews was named the first Head Coach and Director of Football Operations of the expansion Baltimore CFL franchise and led the team to a 12 - 6 regular season record and a trip to the '95 Grey Cup. In the '94 campaign, Don became only the sixth CFL coach to record 100 regular season wins and the second fastest to do so. Bud Grant did it in 151 games - Matthews in 158. The next season, Baltimore defeated Calgary 37 - 20 to win the '95 Cup. The Stallions relocated to Montreal, and Don packed his bags for Toronto where he was named the Argos Head Coach and General Manager in February of 1996.

The arrival in Toronto of Matthews and quarterback Doug Flutie sparked an amazing turnaround for a team that had gone 4 - 14 in 1995. The Boatmen reeled off 9 straight wins - 15 in total to win the Eastern Division. The Argos beat Montreal and then bounced Edmonton in Grey Cup '96 in Hamilton. The Argos picked up where they left off the next season winning 10 straight games. October 18th, 1997 was a very special day for Coach Matthews. He broke the legendary Frank Clair's record of 147 CFL regular season coaching wins. Don capped an amazing year winning his fourth CFL Coach of the Year award.

Matthews was named head coach of the Edmonton Eskimo Football Club January 13th, 1999.

Off the field, Don is active with charity work. During his time in Saskatchewan and Baltimore, Don helped raise funds for school hot lunch programs. As coach of the B.C. Lions, Don was a key fundraiser for Rick Hansen's Man in Motion world tour for spinal cord research. Don has three sons and six grandchildren.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BRAD MILLER

- ASSISTANT HEAD COACH
- DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Now in his fifth season as an Eskimo assistant, Brad Miller has emerged as one of the top young coaches in the CFL. In recognition of his talent, the Eskimos have given Miller the dual responsibilities of Defensive Coordinator and Assistant Head Coach.

The 37 year old native of Pasadena, California made his CFL coaching debut in 1995 as linebackers coach with the expansion Birmingham Barracudas.

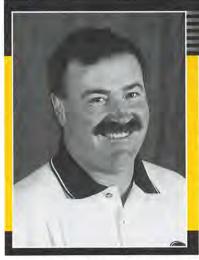

Miller got his coaching start at California's Riverside Community College where he helped guide the team to a national championship in 1989. During Brad's tenure at Riverside, the school won four league championships and appeared in five Bowl games.

Brad played college football at Oregon State University where he was a defensive back and tight end. He has Masters degrees in National Securities Studies (political science) and Education and is a published author of poems and short stories.

Brad, his wife Lisa and their son Anselmo Robert Miller (born: Jan 10, 2000), live year round in Edmonton.

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Greg Marshall is one of two new additions to the Eskimo coaching staff for the 2000 season. Greg joins the Esks after spending the past six years with Saskatchewan where he served as the 'Riders Defensive Coordinator/ Defensive Line coach and coordinator for the Canadian College Draft.

Prior to joining Saskatchewan in 1994, Greg was head coach of the Ottawa Sooners for three seasons. He was named CJFL Coach of the Year in 1991 and the next year guided the Sooners to an undefeated season and a national championship.

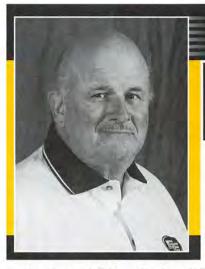

In 1991, Greg got his first taste of CFL coaching when he was a guest coach at the Argos training camp. He worked in a similar capacity for the Ottawa Rough Riders during their 1992 & '93 training camps.

The native of Beverly, MA was also head coach of the Ottawa Bootleggers in the American Football Alliance for two years, leading the team to an undefeated season in 1990.

Greg enjoyed an outstanding playing career as defensive lineman with Ottawa from 1980 - 1988. He was the CFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 1983, a four time Eastern All-Star and a two time CFL All-Star.

Before Greg made his way to Canada, the graduate of Oregon State University was selected by the Philadelphia Eagles in the seventh round of the 1978 NFL Draft. During 1978 & '79 Greg spent time with both Philadelphia and the Baltimore Colts.

Greg and his wife Cindy have four children: Christine (18), Bryan (16), Caitlin (12) and Kelsey (10).

BILL MACDERMOTT

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Now in his 41st season as coach, Bill was the Eskimos O-line coach from 1992 - '96 and was part of the Esks Grey Cup winning team in 1993. He spent 1997 & '98 seasons as the San Diego Chargers Tight Ends coach.

"Coach Mac" returned Edmonton for the 1999 campaign, reuniting him with Eskimos head coach Don Matthews. The two worked together with the Orlando Thunder of the World League of American Football in 1991 - '92.

In 1990, MacDermott was part of the Toronto Argos staff.

Bill's coaching career started in 1961 at Hopkins High School in New Haven, Connecticut. In 1966, he moved to Wesleyan University in Middletown, Connecticut. Five years later he assumed the job of head coach, a post he would keep for 16 years

Born May 14, 1936 in Providence, Rhode Island, Bill has a degree in physical education and history from (1971 - '86).

Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut. Bill and his wife Kathleen and daughter Stephanie reside year round in Edmonton.

DANNY LANGSDORF

OUARTERBACKS COACH

28 year old Danny Langsdorf is in his second year with the Eskimos and has taken on new responsibilities this season.

After spending his rookie campaign working with the receivers, Langsdorf will turn his attention to developing the Eskimos promising, young quarterbacks.

Langsdorf came to Edmonton from Oregon State University where he was a graduate assistant/tight ends coach with the Beavers in 1997-'98.

At OSU, Danny worked under former Winnipeg head coach Mike Riley, now head coach of the NFL's San Diego Chargers.

In 1996, Langsdorf was the quarterbacks coach at California Lutheran University.

The native of Fargo, North Dakota played quarterback at Boise State University from 1991-'93, where he earned academic All-Conference honors in his sophmore year. His coach at Boise was the late Pokey Allen, who played for the B.C. Lions in the mid 1960's. He transferred to Linfield College in Oregon where he guarterbacked the team in 1994earning All-Conference honors. At Linfield, Danny played for his father Ed who was the teams' head coach. In the summer of 1996, Danny was a player/coach with the Deggendorf Blackhawks in Germany.

Danny has a degree in Exercise Science and is working towards a Masters in Sports Psychology.

In 1999, Danny was the instructor for the Eskimos Football 101 program for women.

RICK CAMPBELL

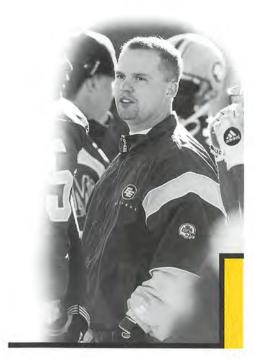

- DEFENSIVE BACKS
- SPECIAL TEAMS

Now in his second season with the Green and Gold, Rick is the son of Eskimos President and CEO Hugh Campbell.

Rick spent three seasons (1996 - '98) with the University of Oregon Ducks working with the defensive secondary.

In 1994 - '95, Rick worked at Spokane's Lewis and Clark High School tutoring wide receivers and working with the school's baseball team. The 29 year old Campbell was raised in Edmonton and was a member of Harry Ainlay High School's provincial championship winning football team.

Campbell was married in the off-season to Jeri Leach. Rick holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education from Washington State University.

KEVIN STRASSER

RECEIVERS

Kevin Strasser continues the Eskimos "Oregon connection". A former wide receiver at Oregon State (1988 - '93), the 29 year old Strasser had a tryout with the Sacramento Gold Miners in 1993.

The year after leaving college, Kevin became head coach at St. Paul High School, leading the team to consecutive undefeated seasons in 1997 and 1998. Since 1998, he has been the offensive coordinator at Oregon City High School.

The 29 year old (07/09/70) native of Burbank, California is a huge Los Angeles Lakers and Dallas Cowboys fan. Idolized former Laker star Magic Johnson and Cowboy legends Tony Dorsett and Roger Staubach.

- DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
- U.S. SCOUTING

Paul Jones has distinguished himself as one of the most astute talent scouts in pro football. Among the CFL players he has helped develop are Gregg Stumon, Fred Childress, Elfrid Payton, Alfred Jackson, Milt Stegall and Juran Bolden.

Paul spent 1998 as Toronto's

Assistant GM and Director of Player Personnel. Prior to joining the Argos, Jones spent nine seasons with Winnipeg as the Bombers' Director of Player Personnel. Five of those seasons he was also the Bombers' Assistant General Manager. During his time in Winnipeg, the Bombers made three trips to the Grey Cup, winning once.

Paul's first recruiting job was with Northwest Mississippi Junior College in 1981-'82. The team won the national championship in '82.

Born in Elaine, Arkansas, the 41 year old Jones is based in Monroe, LA. Paul and his wife Helen have a son Shaine (22) and daughter Keysha (12) and a grandson Donavon Fowler (5).

REGULAR SEASON GAME #1

ESKIMOS 13 LIONS 25

July 9, 1999 at Commonwealth Stadium Attendance 33,404

Robert Drummond rushed for 99 yards and a touchdown and caught a scoring pass as the B.C. Lions rallied for a 25-13 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos in the season opener for both teams. Drummond, who had 21 carries, put the Lions (1-0) ahead for good early in the second quarter by catching a 10-yard touchdown toss from Damon Allen. He scored on a two-yard run just over six minutes later to extend B.C.'s lead to 14-3 at halftime. Allen was 20-for-31 for 260 yards and two scores, giving the Lions a 21-13 lead in the opening minute of the fourth quarter with a 22-yard TD strike to Lloyd Henry. Edmonton quarterbacks threw three interceptions and the Eskimos committed 16 penalties for 124 yards. Marcus Crandell was 12-for-22 for 100 yards and two interceptions but scored Edmonton's lone touchdown on a two-yard keeper. Crandell was replaced by Nealon Greene, who completed 9-of-15 passes for 125 yards and one interception. Troy Mills led the Eskimos' rushing attack with 74 yards on 12 carries. Edmonton grabbed an early 6-0 lead on field goals of 32 and 17 yards by Matt Kellett.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #2

ESKIMOS 39 ROUGHRIDERS 6

July 16, 1999 at Commonwealth Stadium Attendance 32,113

Nealon Greene established a single-game CFL record for rushing yards by a quarterback as the Edmonton Eskimos rolled to a 39-6 victory over the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Greene carried 14 times for 180 yards and scored on a one-yard run in the third quarter. He also caused problems for the Roughriders (0-2) through the air, completing 17-of-24 passes for 206 yards and four touchdowns. Greene got the Eskimos (1-1) on the board 4:51 into the opening quarter when he connected with Terry Vaughn on a 20-yard scoring strike. His 43-yard TD pass to Vaughn with 19 seconds left before intermission extended the lead to 19-6. Vaughn was Greene's main target, catching 10 passes for 138 yards. He hauled in a pass from three yards for his third TD with 9:32 remaining in the fourth for the final margin. Edmonton dominated throughout, outgaining the Roughriders, 504 yards to 191. Roughriders quarterback Reggie Slack struggled, completing only 9-of-19 passes for 101 yards with two interceptions.

Henry Burris tossed a 19-yard touchdown pass to Vince Danielsen with 57 seconds remaining, capping a big fourth quarter as the Calgary Stampeders rallied for a 41-37 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos. Trailing 35-23 early in the fourth after Jon Baker booted a 50yard field goal, the Stampeders (2-1) started their comeback 1:50 into the period when Burris connected with Allen Pitts on a 63-yard scoring strike to cut the deficit to five points. After the teams traded safeties, Burris put the Stampeders ahead for good with his pass to Danielsen. The conversion failed. Burris, who split time with Dave Dickenson at quarterback, completed 11-of-20 passes for 188 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions. Mark McLoughlin kicked a 29-yard field goal with 17 seconds remaining to give the Stampeders the final margin. Dickenson was 11-of-18 for 171 yards with a 65-yard TD pass to Travis Moore with 3:33 left in the first half which gave Calgary a 23-15 advantage. Bobby Phillips scored on a two-yard touchdown run with just over two minutes left in the first half to pull the Eskimos (1-2) within 23-22 at the half. The Eskimos took the lead 2:39 into the second half, when Nealon Greene hooked up with Edward Hervey on a 45-yard TD pass. They extended the lead to nine entering the fourth quarter on Baker's 54-yard field goal. Green, who last week set a league record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 180, carried 10 times for 74 yards. He also completed 19-of-41 passes for 309 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions.

Ronald Williams ran for a pair of touchdowns and the Hamilton Tiger-Cats demolished the Edmonton Eskimos, 54-8. Williams scored on a one-yard touchdown run 1:56 into the second quarter and ran 17 yards for a score 5 1/2 minutes later to highlight a 24-point period that gave Hamilton (2-2) a 31-8 cushion. Williams carried 14 times for 92 yards. The Tiger-Cats also got an efficient night from quarterback Danny McManus, who completed 16of-26 passes for 254 yards and two touchdowns. Backup Cody Ledbetter threw a 27-yard TD pass to Corey Grant in the fourth quarter. Paul Osbaldiston booted field goals of 15, 38, 14 and 51 yards for Hamilton, which totally dominated the Eskimos (1-3), outgaining them. 451-199. Edmonton got its only touchdown with 2:19 left before halftime when Nealon Greene hit Terry Vaughn with a 28-yard TD pass.

ESKIMOS 13 ALOUETTES 20

August 6, 1999 at Commonwealth Stadium Attendance 33,154

Tracy Ham's 10-yard touchdown pass to Mike Pringle with 6:31 remaining gave the Montreal Alouettes their third straight road win, 20-13 over the Edmonton Eskimos. Ham was 15-for-21 for 279 yards, including strikes of 35 yards to Tyree Davis and 20 yards to Chris Armstrong that set up the tiebreaking score. Armstrong finished with seven receptions for 134 yards. Pringle also rushed for 128 yards on 27 carries for the Alouettes (4-1), who improved to 3-0 on the road this season. Jon Baker kicked a 27-yard field goal to give Edmonton (1-4) an early 3-0 lead, but Terry Baker answered with three field goals and a single to put Montreal ahead 10-3 at halftime. Terry Baker converted again from 11 yards for a 10-point cushion. John Baker kicked a 37-yard field goal in the opening minute of the final period before Nealon Greene connected with Rick Walters on a nine-yard TD toss that forged a 13-13 tie with 9:11 to play. Greene was 17-for-23 for 137 yards with an interception.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #6

ESKIMOS 56 BLUE BOMBERS 26

August 13, 1999 at Winnipeg Stadium Attendance 22,454

Nealon Greene helped the Edmonton Eskimos end a three-game losing streak in convincing fashion, passing for 373 yards and three touchdowns and running for another score in a 56-26 rout of the Winnipeg Blue-Bombers. Greene completed 20-of-30 passes, including scoring strikes of 22 yards to Edward Hervey and 60 and 34 yards to Terry Vaughn. Edmonton (2-4) broke open a tight game with a 39-point second half and won for the first time since a 39-6 romp over Saskatchewan on July 6. Deland McCullough rushed for 174 yards and three touchdowns on 29 carries for the Blue Bombers (2-4), who have dropped three of four. Jon Baker's single off a missed 35-yard field goal early in the third quarter snapped a 17-17 tie. Greene connected with Vaughn on a 60-yard TD before McCullough scored on a one-yard run. But Baker answered with a 13-yard field goal and Tyrone Hines returned a fumble 39 yards for a touchdown in the final minute of the third quarter that gave Edmonton a 35-24 cushion. It was all Eskimos in the final period. Greene and Vaughn hooked up for a 34-yard score before Greene ran 11 yards for a touchdown. Sean Millington's one-yard plunge capped the scoring with nine seconds left.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #7 ESKIMOS 27 ROUGHRIDERS 29 August 20, 1999 at Taylor Field Attendance 16,554

Paul McCallum's third field goal, a 52-yarder with 1:12 to play, lifted the Saskatchewan Roughriders to a 29-27 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos. The Roughriders (2-5) opened a 26-14 bulge when Steve Sarkisian hit Eric Guliford with a five-yard touchdown pass 44 seconds into the fourth quarter. Sarkisian completed 19-of-27 passes for 232 yards with a pair of touchdowns and two interceptions. Troy Mills rushed for 93 yards on 17 carries and pulled the Eskimos (2-5) within 26-21 on an 11-yard TD jaunt with 12:53 to play. Matt Kellett booted three field goals, the last of which moved Edmonton ahead, 27-26, with 2:48 remaining. But Sarkisian completed a pair of long passes on the ensuing possession to set up McCallum's game-winner. Douglas Craft gave Saskatchewan a 13-4 lead with a 30-yard fumble return 4:45 into the second quarter, but Doug Petersen answered for Edmonton five minutes later when he returned an interception 61 yards for a score.

ESKIMOS 23 TIGER-CATS 30 (OT)

August 27, 1999 at Commonwealth Stadium Attendance 34,180

Quarterback Danny McManus scored on a two-yard touchdown run in the first overtime, lifting the Hamilton Tiger-Cats to a 30-23 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos. Hamilton defensive back Rick Walters intercepted Dan Crowley at midfield and returned the ball to the Edmonton 31 to set up the winning drive. Ronald Williams carried four times for 29 yards before McManus scored. Williams rushed 25 times for 136 yards for Hamilton (3-4), which racked up 584 total yards. McManus completed 25-of-34 passes for 395 yards with two TDs and two interceptions. He found Darren Flutie on TD passes of 16 yards and 15 in the first half. Flutie caught eight passes for 116 yards. Marcus Crandell connected with Fred Bailey on a 57-yard scoring strike with 2:55 left in regulation to give the Eskimos a 23-20 lead. But Paul Osbaldiston's eight-yard field goal with 19 seconds left forced overtime. Crandell finished 19-of-34 for 277 yards with two TDs and one interception for Edmonton (2-5). Bailey had eight receptions for 162 yards.

ESKIMOS 33 STAMPEDERS 30 (OT)

September 6, 1999 at McMahon Stadium Attendance 37,611

Jon Baker kicked his third field goal of the game, a 47-yarder at the end of the first overtime, to give the Edmonton Eskimos a 33-30 victory over the Calgary Stampeders, Baker's kick was the only points after regulation and gave Edmonton (3-6) only its second win in five road games this season. He also connected on fourth-quarter field goals of 39 and 52 yards, the latter with 81 seconds remaining. Troy Mills rushed for 127 yards and a touchdown on 22 carries for the Eskimos, who avenged a 41-37 loss to their provincial rivals on July 22. Quarterback Nealon Greene added 56 yards on nine rushes while passing for 166 yards and two scores. Veteran Mark McLoughlin provided most of the offense for the Stampeders (6-3) with field goals of 18, 40, 33, 25 and 28 yards. But Calgary had a three-game winning streak stopped. Dave Dickenson was 22-of-30 for 264 yards and two touchdowns for the Stamps. His favorite target was Travis Moore, who had eight receptions for 106 yards.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #10

ESKIMOS 13 STAMPEDERS 38

September 10, 1999 at Commonwealth Stadium Attendance 52,458

Dave Dickenson passed for 457 yards and three touchdowns and ran for another score as the Calgary Stampeders cruised to a 38-13 rout of the Edmonton Eskimos. Calgary outscored Edmonton 21-0 in the third quarter to put away the game. Dickenson threw a 58-yard touchdown pass to Travis Moore and scored on a 19-yard run seven minutes later to put the Stampeders ahead 28-13, Kelvin Anderson added a one-yard touchdown plunge with 30 seconds left in the period. Dickenson completed 26-of-36 passes as Calgary (7-3) outgained Edmonton 582-187 and moved within one-half game of BC for first place in the West Division. Anderson rushed for 88 yards on 19 carries. Andre Batson blocked a punt and Rick Walters ran it back 46 yards for the lone touchdown for Edmonton (3-7). Jon Baker booted a pair of first-half field goals. Kevin Mason and Nealon Greene were held to just 90 yards passing on 8-of-28 attempts for the Eskimos, who edged the Stampeders, 33-30, in overtime on Monday.

ESKIMOS 19 BLUE BOMBERS 27

October 3, 1999 at Commonwealth Stadium Attendance 27,211

Deland McCullough rushed for 140 yards and a touchdown as the Winnipeg Blue Bombers posted a 27-19 win over the Edmonton Eskimos in a battle of two of the league's worst teams. Kerwin Bell completed 17-of-27 passes for 205 yards and a score and rushed for another TD for Winnipeg (4-9), which matched Edmonton for the second-worst record in the league, Saskatchewan is 3-10. McCullough gave the Blue Bombers a 24-13 cushion with a 27-yard TD run 6:47 into the fourth quarter. Nealon Greene countered with a 17-yard TD pass to Terry Vaughn, but the two-point conversion failed. Troy Westwood nailed a 42-yard field goal with 34 seconds left to cap the scoring. Greene was 21-of-32 for 273 yards a touchdown and two interceptions. He also rushed 13 times for 141 yards as Edmonton totaled 419 yards of offense to 368 for the Bombers. The Eskimos led 11-7 after Troy Mills' seven-yard scoring run 2:49 into the second quarter. But Bell's one-yard keeper more than seven minutes later gave Winnipeg the lead for good, 14-11. Westwood kicked a pair of field goals for the Bombers. Edmonton's Sean Fleming had a field goal and three singles.

Nealon Greene scored on a 68-yard quarterback draw and passed for another touchdown as the Edmonton Eskimos recorded a stunning 26-20 Thanksgiving Day victory over the B.C. Lions. Greene's dash put Edmonton (5-9) ahead for good, 13-6, with just under five minutes to go in the third quarter. His 27-yard scoring toss to Terry Vaughn enabled the Eskimos to carry a 20-6 lead into the final period. The first-place Lions (10-4) climbed within 23-20 with 86 seconds remaining on a 34-yard TD pass from Damon Allen to James Cunningham. But Sean Fleming kicked his fourth field goal, a 48-yarder in the final minute, to seal Edmonton's third straight road win. Allen also scored on a one-yard keeper for B.C., which lost for only the third time in eight games. He completed 31-of-47 passes for 388 yards and an interception. Troy Mills rushed for 129 yards on 24 carries for the Eskimos, who can avoid their first losing season in 28 years by winning their final four games.

October 17, 1999 at Commonwealth Stadium Attendance 30,713

Bret Anderson scored an 89-yard single off a kickoff in the first half of overtime and James Cunningham added a 65-yard punt return for a touchdown as the BC Lions posted a 21-13 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos. Sean Fleming's 31-yard field goal - his second of the game - gave Edmonton a 13-3 lead just under three minutes into the fourth quarter. But BC rallied as Damon Allen connected on a 71-yard TD pass to Rod Harris at the 4:33 mark and Lui Passaglia kicked a 32-yard field goal a little more than seven minutes later to tie the game at 13-13. Passaglia gave the Lions a 3-0 lead 9:17 into the game with a 25-yard field goal. Edmonton's Troy Mills scampered two yards into the end zone in the second quarter and Fleming booted a 43-yard field goal for the only scoring in the third period as the Eskimos opened a 10-3 lead. Allen completed 11-of-24 passes for 195 yards and Robert Drummond rushed 20 times for 134 yards for BC (11-4), which already clinched a playoff berth and leads the West Division by two points over Calgary. Dan Crowley was 20-for-42 for 194 yards and Troy Mills rushed for 127 yards for the Eskimos (5-10), who assured themselves of a losing season.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #16

October 23, 1999 at McGill Stadium Attendance 19,461

Terry Baker booted a 32-yard field goal with 22 seconds left as the Montreal Alouettes increased their lead in the East Division with a 36-33 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos. Baker's game-winner capped a six-play, 51-yard drive featuring a 27-yard run by quarterback Anthony Calvillo to the Edmonton 27. Baker kicked his second field goal three plays later as Montreal (11-5) opened a 1 1/2-game lead over Hamilton in the East. Edmonton (5-11) rallied from a 33-20 deficit early in the fourth quarter to tie the contest. Donnie Ashley returned a kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown and Sean Fleming kicked a pair of field goals, including a 24-yard boot with 2:31 left. The Alouettes trailed 13-11 at halftime but scored 15 straight points. Calvillo, who completed 14-of-24 passes for 208 yards, concluded the spurt with a 31-yard scoring pass to Alfonzo Browning for a 26-13 lead. Montreal's Mike Pringle, the CFL's leading rusher, had 143 yards on 24 carries. Marcus Crandell was 14-of-34 for 214 yards for the Eskimos, who lead Saskatchewan by 1 1/2 games for the final playoff spot in the West.

REGULAR SEASON GAME #17

ESKIMOS 34 ROUGHRIDERS 21

October 30, 1999 at Commonwealth Stadium Attendance 33,850

Sean Millington rushed for 225 yards and three touchdowns as the Edmonton Eskimos eliminated the Saskatchewan Roughriders from playoff contention with a 34-21 triumph. Millington carried 29 times, including scoring runs of one and 43 yards four minutes apart in the fourth quarter as Edmonton (6-11) built a 34-18 lead. The Eskimos have solidified third place in the West Division but need to beat BC next Friday to ensure Winnipeg (6-11) will not cross over from the East and grab the final playoff spot. The Roughriders entered the contest two games behind the Eskimos with two remaining and held slight postseason chances before the loss. The Eskimos outrushed the Roughriders 259-64 and held a 434-237 advantage in total yards. Edmonton's Kevin Mason completed 11-of-17 passes for 149 yards. He fired a nine-yard scoring pass to Edward Hervey with 2:42 left in the first half, giving the Eskimos a 17-1 lead. Steve Sarkisian, who came in seventh in the league in passing, was 13-of-24 for 188 yards for Saskatchewan (3-14). He threw a 65-yard touchdown pass late in the first half to Reggie Jones, who caught three passes for 99 yards. Ricky Whittle scored on a one-yard run and Paul McCallum booted a 49-yard field goal in the third quarter to bring Saskatchewan within 20-18 before Millington took over.

ARGONAUTS 20 November 6, 1999 at SkyDome

Attendance 28,387

Derrell Mitchell caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from Jay Barker early in the fourth quarter as the Toronto Argonauts prepared for the playoffs with a 20-15 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos. Mitchell's score was the Argonauts' lone touchdown of the contest as they improved to 9-9 and will visit Hamilton next Sunday in the East Division semifinals. The winner battles Montreal for the right to play in the Grey Cup. Mitchell caught five passes for 84 yards and Barker completed 13-of-23 passes for 169 yards. Dan Giancola booted his fourth field goal of the contest with 7:03 left to close the scoring for Toronto. Sean Fleming scored nine points for Edmonton (6-12), including a pair of field goals in the second half that gave the Eskimos a 15-7 lead. Scott Deibert scored Edmonton's only touchdown late in the first quarter on a 10-yard touchdown run for an 8-4 lead. Sean Millington led the Eskimos with 20 carries for 136 yards. Nealon Greene had a sub-par effort for Edmonton, completing 11-of-28 passes for just 80 yards.

ESKIMOS 17 STAMPEDERS 30

November 14, 1999 at McMahon Stadium Attendance 25,305

Dave Dickenson threw a pair of touchdown passes before halftime as the defending Grey Cup champion Calgary Stampeders coasted to a 30-11 victory over the Edmonton Eskimos to advance to the Western Division championship. Dickenson completed 20-of-28 passes for 289 yards for the Stampeders (13-6), who will battle the first-place BC Lions for a trip to the Grey Cup. Kelvin Anderson opened the scoring on a one-yard scoring plunge that staked Calgary to a 7-0 lead just over two minutes into play. Dickenson hooked up with Marcus Dowdell on a 51-yard scoring strike early in the second quarter to make it 14-0. Dickenson found Anderson with a 24-yard TD pass with just under three minutes remining in the first half to give the Stampeders a 21-3 bulge. Mark McLoughlin hit three second-half field goals for Calgary, which is hoping to defend its Grey Cup title, Nealon Greene was 16-of-29 for 181 yards for Edmonton (6-13), which earned the league's final playoff berth over Winnipeg based on point differential.

ESKIMO

GREEN AND GOLD GLORY

- 1892 Edmonton assembled a rugby club which defeated an established club in Calgary.
- 1895 Edmonton won its first Alberta Rugby Football championship.
- 1907-1913 "Deacon" White became Edmonton's first import player. White continued his career with the team in a coaching capacity. In 1908, the Edmonton Esquimaux won their second Alberta Rugby Football championship. The team's name became the Edmonton Eskimos in 1910. The Eskimos lost to Calgary during consecutive seasons after the Western Canada Rugby Football Union was established in 1911. In 1913, before 300 loyal supporters in Red Deer, the Eskimos once again became Alberta Rugby Football champions.
- 1916-1918 No games because of World War I.
- 1919 The four-team WCRFU was re-established with "Deacon" White leading Edmonton's charge.
- 1921 The Eskimos became the first western team to play in a Grey Cup game. The hometown Toronto Argonauts shut out the Eskimos 23-0.
- 1922 The Eskimos appeared in their second straight east-west Grey Cup. They lost to Queen's University 13-1.
- 1923 The Eskimos relinquished their title as western champions to the Regina Roughriders.
- 1924 The Eskimos were defeated by Calgary during the Alberta Rugby Football championship. Football operations ceased immediately after the loss.
- 1928 The Eskimos reassembled a rugby club and won the Alberta Rugby Football championship for the sixth time.
- 1929 The Eskimos participated in a game featuring the first forward pass. Edmonton's Joe Cook connected with Pal Power for the first touchdown pass.
- 1930 The Western Canada Rugby Football Union was reorganized. Clarke Stadium opened. The Edmonton Boosters represented the city in the newly organized league.
- 1938-1940 The Eskimos joined the Western Interprovincial Football Union, adopting the colours blue and white. The Eskimos withdrew from the WIFU in 1940.
- 1942 The WIFU was suspended for the duration of World War II.
- 1948 The Edmonton Eskimo Rugby Football Club became a publicly-owned company. Shares were a dollar each and 20,000 were available. Local legends such as Joe Shoctor, Henry Singer, Eric Duggan and Moe Lieberman became involved with the organization.
- 1949 The Eskimos rejoined the Western Interprovincial Football Union, this time adopting the colours green and gold. The Western Canada Rugby Football Union ceased to exist.
- 1950 The Eskimos, coached by Annis Stukus, played Winnipeg in the first professional playoff game at night under lights. The Eskimos lost to Winnipeg in the western final.
- 1951 The Eskimos were defeated by the Regina Roughriders in the western final.

- 1952 The Eskimos, coached by Frank Filchok, lost 21-11 to the Toronto Argonauts in the Grey Cup game at Toronto's Varsity Stadium.
- 1953 The Eskimos were defeated by Winnipeg in the western final as the split T formation was introduced. Eskimo halfback Billy Vessels received the first Schenley Award as the league's outstanding player.
- 1954 The Eskimos began their domination of football in Canada. Head coach Frank "Pop" lyy introduced the twin-fullback formation. Jackie Parker electrified fans across the country with a last-minute fumble return for a touchdown against the Montreal Alouettes in the Grey Cup game. Bob Dean kicked the convert and the Eskimos won their first Grey Cup.
- 1955 The Eskimos won their second Grey Cup in a row. Normie Kwong was awarded the Schenley Award as the outstanding Canadian player in the CFL.
 - 1956 The Canadian Football Council was formed. The Eskimos beat Montreal for the third straight year in the Grey Cup. "Pop" Ivy was named coach of the year. Normie Kwong received his second straight Schenley Award as the outstanding Canadian player in the league. Don Getty became the first Canadian quarterback in a decade to lead his team to a national championship.
 - 1957 The Eskimos failed in a bid to win their fourth consecutive Grey Cup, losing to Winnipeg in the Western final. Jackie Parker was the recipient of the Schenley Award as the outstanding player in the CFL. Mike Lashuk was voted the rookie of the year in the West and Johnny Bright won the league rushing title.
 - 1958 The Canadian Football Council changed its name to the Canadian Football League. The Eskimos brought in former Oklahoma Sooner Sam Lyle as head coach. Jackie Parker was once again voted the outstanding player in the league, Johnny Bright won his second straight CFL rushing title.
 - 1959 The Eskimos hired Eagle Keys as head coach.
- 1960 The Eskimos lost 16-6 to Ottawa in the Grey Cup, Jackie Parker won his third Schenley Award as the outstanding player in the CFL.
- 1961 The Western Interprovincial Football Union changed its name to the Western Football Conference. An interlocking schedule between Eastern and Western divisions was initiated. Norm Kimball was named coordinator of minor football for the Eskimos. Eskimo alumni donated the Annis Stukus Trophy for the coach of the year in the CFL.
- 1962-1963 The Canadian Football Hall of Fame was established. The Eskimos went through a rebuilding period with an 8-23-1 record.
- 1964 The Eskimos, under the direction of president Walter H. Sprague, developed new guidelines for team operations. A nine-man board of directors was adopted. Neill Armstrong replaced Eagle Keys as head coach. Bill Mitchell set a CFL record for the longest field goal (58 yards).
- 1965 The Canadian Football Players' Association was organized.
- 1966 The Eskimo board of directors named Norm Kimball general manager. Kimball began development of arguably the most effective recruiting system in the CFL.
- 1967 John LaGrone was voted the Schenley Award recipient as the outstanding lineman in the CFL.
- 1970 Ray Jauch took over from Neill Armstrong as head coach. Jauch was voted coach of the year. Dave Cutler kicked a 59-yard field goal, breaking Mitchell's six-year-old record for the longest field goal in the CFL. Johnny Bright was inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame. Ken Montgomery was inducted into the Hall of Fame as a builder.

- 1971 Jackie Parker was inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame.
- 1972 The Canadian Football Hall of Fame opened in Hamilton.
- 1973 Dave Cutler set a league record with 32 field goals in a season. George McGowan tied a CFL record with 15 receptions in a game and was voted the Schenley Award winner as the league's outstanding player. The Eskimos made it to their eighth Grey Cup game but lost 22-18 to Ottawa.
- 1974 Tom Wilkinson won the Schenley Award as the CFL's outstanding player. The Eskimos lost to Montreal 20-7 in the Grey Cup. Annis Stukus was inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame as a builder.
- 1975 The Eskimos won their fourth Grey Cup championship 9-8 over Montreal.
- 1976 The Eskimos were third in the Western Conference and lost to Saskatchewan 23-13 in the Western final.
- 1977 The Eskimos named Hugh Campbell head coach. Dan Kepley received the Schenley Award as the outstanding defensive player in the league. The Eskimos lost 41-6 to Montreal in the Grey Cup game in Montreal. Tommy Joe Coffey was inducted into the Hall of Fame.
- 1978 The Eskimos played their first season at Commonwealth Stadium. Dave Fennell was voted the Schenley Award recipient as the outstanding defensive player in the CFL. The Eskimos beat Montreal 20-13 in the Grey Cup game.
- 1979 Brian Kelly won the Schenley Award as the league's outstanding rookie, Dave Fennell was voted the CFL's outstanding Canadian and Mike Wilson was selected the league's outstanding lineman. The Eskimos established a single-season Western Conference attendance record of 340,239. They defeated Montreal 17-9 for their second straight Grey Cup.
- 1980 The Eskimos scored a team record 505 points during the regular season. They won their third consecutive Grey Cup 48-10 over Hamilton. Rollie Miles was inducted into the Hall of Fame.
- 1981 Dan Kepley earned his second consecutive Schenley Award as the league's outstanding defensive player. The Eskimos established CFL records with a 14-1-1 regular-season record and a fourth straight Grey Cup, defeating Ottawa 26-23 in the Grey Cup. Eric Duggan was inducted into the Hall of Fame as a builder.
- 1982 The Eskimos were 3-5 when Hugh Campbell made an announcement that he would be leaving at the end of the season. The Eskimos won their remaining eight games and finished first in the West. They extended their own league record with their fifth straight Grey Cup, this time beating Toronto 32-16. Warren Moon was voted the outstanding player and Dave Fennell was selected the outstanding Canadian and outstanding defensive player in the Grey Cup, James Parker was the recipient of the Schenley Award as the league's outstanding defensive player and Tom Wilkinson became the first Eskimo named to the Wall of Honour at Commonwealth Stadium.
- 1983 Pete Kettela took over as head coach from Hugh Campbell, who eventually became the head coach of the Houston Oilers of the National Football League, Kettela was fired following the Eskimos' annual Labor Day game against Calgary and Jackie Parker became the new head coach. The Eskimos made the playoffs but lost in the Western semi-final. Warren Moon joined Campbell in Houston, Frank Morris was inducted into the Hall of Fame and Johnny Bright, Normie Kwong, Rollie Miles and Jackie Parker were added to the Eskimo Wall of Honour.

- 1984 The Eskimos finished third in the West for the second straight season and were eliminated in the division semi-final. Dave Cutler, Dave Fennell, Larry Highbaugh and Dan Kepley retired and Edmonton staged its first Grey Cup.
- 1985 Dave Fennell and George McGowan were added to the Eskimo Wall of Honour after a third consecutive third-place finish and West semi-final loss.
- 1986 —The Eskimos finished first overall, with a 13-4-1 record, but lost 39-15 to Hamilton in the Grey Cup. Dave Cutler was named to the Eskimo Wall of Honour and Roger Nelson was inducted into the Football Hall of Fame.
- 1987 Joe Faragalli took over from Jackie Parker as head coach. Brian Kelly set CFL career records for most yards receiving (11,169), most touchdown receptions (97), most 100-yard receiving games (41) and most 1,000-yard seasons (six). Henry (Gizmo) Williams established league records for most punt returns for touchdowns in a season (four), most punt returns for touchdowns in a quarter and game (both two). The Eskimos beat Toronto 38-36 for their 10th Grey Cup. Damon Allen was chosen the outstanding player in the Grey Cup, Tom Wilkinson was inducted into the Football Hall of Fame, Dan Kepley and Roger Nelson were added to the Eskimo Wall of Honour.
- 1988 The Eskimos finished first in the West for the 16th time in 39 years but lost to B.C. in the Western final. Tommy Joe Coffey and John LaGrone became members of the Eskimo Wall of Honour.
- 1989 The Eskimo organization celebrated its 40th anniversary. The team set a record for most wins in a season (16) but lost in the Western final. The Eskimos established CFL records for most points (644), most touchdowns (70) and most yards gained (7,951) and Tracy Ham set a league record for most yards rushing by a quarterback (1,051) in a season. Rod Connop was voted the league's outstanding offensive lineman and Brian Kelly was added to the Eskimo Wall of Honour.
- 1990 The Eskimos finished second in the West but lost to Winnipeg 50-11 in the Grey Cup. Joe Faragalli left the organization at the end of the season. Dave Fennell and Eagle Keys were inducted into the Football Hall of Fame as a player and builder, respectively.
- 1991 Canadian Football Hall of Famer Ron Lancaster was introduced as the new head coach. The Eskimos were first in the West, with a 12-6 record, but lost to Calgary in the division final. Blake Marshall was voted the most outstanding Canadian in the league after tying the CFL record for most touchdowns in a season, with 20. Henry Williams established league records for most punt return yards in a season (1,140), most punt return yards in a game (232) and most punt return touchdowns in a season (five). Danny Bass retired after setting a league record for career defensive tackles (465) and Brian Kelly was inducted into the Football Hall of Fame.
- 1992 The Eskimos made it to the Western final for the 13th time in 21 years but lost to Calgary. Willie Pless was voted the league's outstanding defensive player. Danny Bass, Don Getty and Oscar Kruger were added to the Eskimo Wall of Honour.
- 1993 The Eskimos and Toronto completed the largest trade in professional football history with an eight-for-eight exchange. The Eskimos obtained Ed Berry, Eddie Brown, Bruce Dickson, Rickey Foggie, J. P. Izquierdo, Len Johnson, Darrell K. Smith and Don Wilson, then reacquired quarterback Damon Allen from Hamilton. They finished with eight consecutive wins, including a 33-23 decision over Winnipeg for their 11th Grey Cup championship. Damon Allen was selected the outstanding player in the Grey Cup and Tom Scott was added to the Eskimo Wall of Honour.

1994 – The Eskimos were second in the West with a 13-5 record but lost to B.C. in the division semi-final. Willie Pless was voted the league's outstanding defensive player for the second time in three years and Henry Williams raised his CFL career record to 23 touchdowns on punt returns.

1995 – Eric Blount established team records with five touchdowns and 30 points in a game and the team set a record with 64 points in a 64-10 win over Winnipeg. The Eskimos were again 13-5 and second in the West. They made the playoffs for a CFL record 24th straight season and reached the Western final for the 19th time in 23 years but lost to Calgary. Shalon Baker set Eskimo rookie records with 79 catches for 1,156 yards and was selected the league's outstanding rookie. Willie Pless was chosen the CFL's outstanding defensive player for the third time in four years.

1996 – The Eskimos were second in the West with an 11-7 record and qualified for the playoffs for a league record 25th consecutive season. Willie Pless established a CFL record with his fourth Chrysler league outstanding defensive player award. Leroy Blugh was voted the league's outstanding Canadian. The Eskimos set CFL playoff records with 68 points, 9 touchdowns, 9 converts and a 61-point spread in a 68-7 win over the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in the West semifinal. The Eskimos defeated the Calgary Stampeders 15-12 in the West final and made their 19th Grey Cup appearance, losing 43-37 to the Toronto Argonauts. Dan Kepley was inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame. Larry Highbaugh was added to the Eskimo Wall of Honour. Ron Lancaster became only the third Eskimo head coach honoured as the league's coach of the year, after surpassing general manager Hugh Campbell for most wins by an Eskimo head coach in the final regular-season game, with 71.

1997 – The Eskimos finished first in the West for the 19th time, with a 12-6 record, and extended their league record to 26 straight years qualifying for the playoffs. They were in the West Division final for the 21st time in 25 years. Willie Pless increased his CFL record to five Chrysler outstanding defensive player awards and Ron Lancaster improved his Eskimo record to 83 wins as head coach.

1998 – The Eskimos extended their league record to 27 consecutive years qualifying for the playoffs. They were second in the West, with a 9-9 record, and advanced to the West Division final for the 22nd time in 26 years. Tom Scott and Dave Cutler were inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame.

1999 – The Eskimos qualified for the playoffs for a league record 28th straight season. They were third in the West Division with a 6-12 record under new head coach Don Matthews.

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

Commonwealth Stadium, home of the Edmonton Eskimos and site of the Edmonton 2001 World Championships in Athletics.

Edmonton's Commonwealth Stadium, constructed for a cost of $20.9 million, became the home of the Edmonton Eskimos on August 30, 1978, about three weeks after the city hosted the Commonwealth Games.

Football has been a part of the Edmonton sports scene since at least 1891 when Calgary and Edmonton tangled for the first time in a home and home series. With the creation of the Alberta Rugby Union, four years later, Edmonton played its first series of organized games.

In 1907, the Edmonton Rugby Football Club was officially formed, and in November of that year it played its first game against the Calgary City Football Club, defeating their rivals 26-5, at the Edmonton Exhibition Grounds.

The city's biggest move toward solidifying a franchise came in July of 1938, when work commenced on a new, modern stadium. In August of 1938 the stadium opened with much fanfare, before a crowd of 2,500. Prior to this, the team had folded and reformed a couple of times, but the creation of Clarke Stadium, named after former Edmonton mayor Joe Clarke, helped Edmonton become a big league city. The Eskimos played at Clarke for the last time on August 23, 1978.

In preparation for the 2001 World Championships in Athletics, Commonwealth Stadium will undergo major renovations. In 1999, a 6.2 million dollar full colour Sony lumbotron was installed, along with a new sound system.

The video board features 120 degree horizontal viewing angles. The 28 x 24 matrix board has 16 million colours. A new running track will be installed, as well as a temporary media centre that will house reporters from more than 200 countries. Clarke Stadium has Edmonton been torn down and will be replaced with a smaller facility which will serve as a warm-up area for athletes. For more information on the 2001 World Championships in Athletics go to www.2001.edmonton.com.

The $6.2M Sony Jumbotron video scoreboard in Commonwealth Stadium is currently the largest and most advanced system of its kind in the world measuring 40' X 24' with a 16 X 9 wide-screen picture format.

The on-screen presentation and video production seen on the screen during Eskimo games is provided by Aquila Productions Inc., an Edmonton-based international television, film, video, and new media company. Aguila Productions also operates and produces video programming for the video scoreboard at Skyreach Centre for the Edmonton Oilers.

After more than 20 years and the creation of almost 2,000 productions, including television series, documentaries, specials, and commercials, as well as corporate, government, educational, and music videos, Aquila is widely regarded as one of Canada's preeminent independent production companies specializing in broadcast sports-entertainment programming.

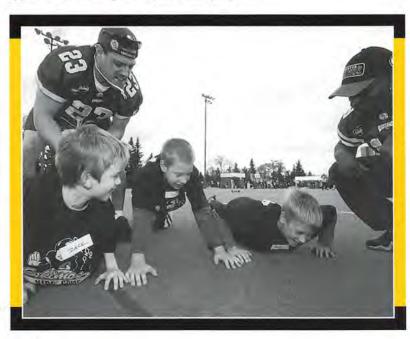

Aquila Scoreboard Productions is a leader in the use of computer animation to create dynamic, high-quality scoreboard video elements for live sporting events. As exclusive provider of scoreboard video content for the Eskimos (as well as for the Edmonton Oilers), Aquila has applied the creative talents and expertise of its team of television professionals to the creation of exceptional, award-winning video elements, features, interactive promotions, and sponsor advertising.

ESKIMOS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Edmonton Eskimo Football Club is extremely proud of it's on-going work in the community. For the last 10 years, the Eskimos Stay In School program has delivered the message that "It's Cool to Stay In School" to thousands of kids in Edmonton and surrounding areas. This past off-season, Eskimo players Rick Walters, Val St. Germain, Gizmo Williams, Kavis Reed and Scott Deibert were on the Stay in School team. In 1999/2000 Eskimo players made over 450 personal appearances, including the Stay in School program.

In February, the Eskimos and Edmonton Oilers put on black ties for the first ever Casino of Champions. The event raised over $120,000 with part proceeds going to the Unrelated Bone Marrow Registry Program of Northern Alberta and Ronald McDonald House in Edmonton. Since it's inception in 1988, the Oilers & Eskimos Charity Foundation has raised more than $1.3 million dollars for Edmonton and area charitable organizations.

EDMONTON TRAPPERS

Since 1981, Trapper Baseball has been the jewel of each summer in Edmonton's river valley. Over 20 seasons, the Trappers have produced 3 championships including back-to-back titles in 1996 and 1997.

Modern professional baseball returned to Edmonton in 1981 when the Triple-A Trappers arrived from Ogden, Utah. The Trappers contributed to the City of Champions' legend, winning Pacific Coast League titles in 1984, 1996 and 1997. The affiliations with major league baseball have changed over the years beginning with the Chicago White Sox and then followed by the California Angels, Florida Marlins and the Oakland Athletics. The 1999 season saw the return of the now-Anaheim Angels as the Trappers' parent team. The ballpark has also changed over the last 20 years. Beginning in venerable Renfrew Park in 1981, it was rechristened John Ducey Park in 1986 after the legendary Edmonton baseball pioneer. John Ducey Park eventually gave way in 1995 to the diamond of the north, state-of-the-art TELUS Field.

The Edmonton Trapper Baseball Club has also brought twenty years of community spirit and civic duty. Staunch supporters of charitable causes and amateur baseball the Trappers are proud ambassadors of the City of Champions. Likewise the Trappers were early pioneers of modern marketing with innovative promotions and imaginative salesmanship. Today, the June 30 Fireworks display and post-game concerts are still traditional summer highlights.

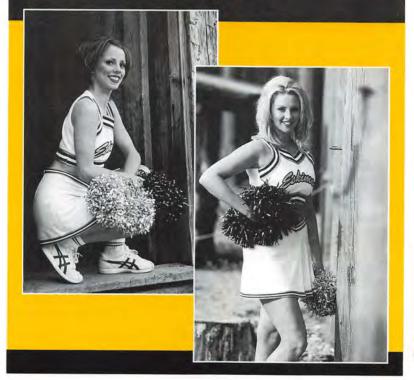

The Trappers continue to be on the leading edge of summertime sports entertainment. Providing affordable family entertainment, taking in a game on a warm summer evening in the picturesque river valley is just one way to enjoy the great sport of baseball. Bring your family to join our family at TELUS Field. Every game is a hit!

2000 CHEER TEAM

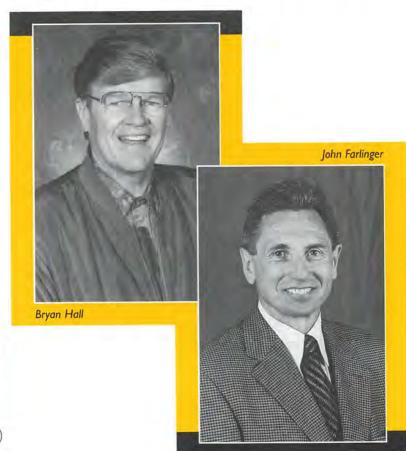

2000 Edmonton Eskimo Cheer Team, Directed by Dianne Greenough

With his signature call of "Touchdown Eskimos!", Bryan Hall has been the voice of football in Edmonton for over 32 seasons. Inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 1989, Hallsy has called the action for 8 Eskimo Grey Cup victories and proudly wears a 1993 Grey Cup ring presented to him by the club. During his long career, Hall has done play by play of the Edmonton Oilers (WHA) and a few seasons ago "pinch hit" for the Boston Bruins when their announcer became ill before the opening face-off during a game in Edmonton. He was for many years the track announcer for thouroughbred racing at Northlands. On the rare occasion that he's not on-air at 630 CHED doing morning sports or his afternoon Sportline show, Bryan and his wife Lillian enjoy movies and travel.

For the last 20 seasons, Bryan has been joined in the broadcast booth by former Eskimo player John Farlinger who provides the expert analysis. John, who is the president of Farlie Worldwide Travel Management in St. Albert, played six seasons at safety for the Green and Gold (1973 - '78). A native Edmontonian who played his college ball at the University of Calgary, he was a member of the Eskimos 1978 Grey Cup winning team.

GLOSSARY OF CFL TERMS

IMPORT – A player who played football outside Canada and who did not play football in Canada prior to his 17th birthday.

NON-IMPORT – A player who has spent a total of five of his first 15 years in Canada, or who has never played football outside Canada.

GAME ROSTER – In 2000, the game roster shall consist of a maximum of 39 players, including 3 players identified as quarterbacks. The roster shall not have more than 17 imports.

WAIVERS – Before a team may terminate a player's contract it must give other teams the opportunity to claim the player's services.

WAIVERS WITH RECALL – A team has the right to recall a player from waivers twice in a calendar year.

OPTION CLAUSE – Each player contract contains a clause which gives the team the option to renew the contract for another season.

ROSTER QUOTA – The league annually determines the number of players a team may have on its roster, the number that may dress for a game, and how many may be imports.

NON-ACTIVE LIST — Players not under contract who are permitted to practice with a team are declared on the non-active list.

ROSTER CUTDOWN – July 1st 2000 teams must establish their rosters within the prescribed limits,

RETIRED LIST – A player who elects to retire may, at the request of the team, be placed on the retired players' list.

SUSPENDED LIST -A player who violates his contract with the team may, upon application to the president and chief operating officer, be placed on the league suspension list.

DISABLED LIST – A player who is judged unfit to play for reasons other than a football-related injury may, at the request of the team, be placed on the disabled list

COLLEGE DRAFT – The annual draft of Canadian players graduating from universities in Canada and the United States.

GRADUATING JUNIOR – A junior player who attains the age of 23 during the current calendar year.

ROOKIE – A player who has not been named on any CFL team's active roster, reserve, injured or disabled list, or the equivalent category of a team in any other professional league at the time a game was played in a previous season.

NEGOTIATION LIST — A team may claim exclusive negotiation rights to a specified number of players on its negotiation list, and may make changes daily.

INJURED LIST—A player who has been injured may, at the request of the team, be placed on the injured players' list for a minimum period of 30 days or for one game after clearing waivers while identified as "injured".

SIDELINES

GLOSSARY OF MEDICAL TERMS

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint: joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock - Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain, Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

 $\label{eq:Anteriogram-A} \textbf{Anteriogram} - \textbf{A} \text{ film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.}$

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Anthroscope - An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis - Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion - The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae - Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck

Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids - Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral - Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics - Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy - A treatment with the use of cold.

SIDELINES (

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surface as a result of repetitive trauma

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back

Disc, Intelvertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscles as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself.

Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogran (EMG) - Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur - Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach of continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen - Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury — A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to elbow.

Hydrotherapy - Treatment using water.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension of a limb or body part

Iliotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation - Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lesion - Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals - Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle,

Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic – Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella — The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femuras well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patelia Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."

Patellofemoral Joint – Articulation of the knee cap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: I) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx - Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis - Inflammation of a vein.

Plica - Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

SIDELINES

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction — Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain - Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction - The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by over use. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: I) Tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff, 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than I cm.; and 4) A complete tear of I cm. or more.

Sacrum – Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula - Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the skin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) – Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis – Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum - The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids

Strain — Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) - The articulation of the jaw and skull: considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinities – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon shealth, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon - Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertegrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trascutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) — An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus - Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus - Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction - Decrease of local blood flow

Vasodilation - Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" - Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma - The cheekbone

ESKIMO FIGHT SONG

We're Cheering Fight, Fight, Fight On Eskimos

We're Marching Right, Right, Right On Eskimos

We're Charging Down the Field For All To See

And Shouting Rah, Rah, Rah, Fight On To Victory

We're Marching On 'Til Every Game Is Won

The Green And Gold Is Bold And When We're Done

We'll Tell The World We're Proud Of Edmonton

And The Edmonton Eskimos.

Season passes are issued to those members of the media who regularly cover the Eskimos. Single game credentials may be requested by contacting the Edmonton Eskimos at the above numbers at least 24 hours before the game, All credentials are issued to a specific individual and are non-transferrable. Media Centre space is limited so seating is not guaranteed. Single game credentials may be picked up at the Coaches' Press Conference one day prior to the game. All unclaimed passes will be available for pick-up game day at the Eskimo Administration Office.

Media Entrance: located at Gate 2 at the SouthWest corner of Commonwealth Stadium.

Press Box Services: The Commonwealth Stadium Media Centre is for working members of the media only. Game notes from both teams, depth charts, CFL weekly statistics and other game day information is available in the media centre. Play by play statistics are provided at the end of each quarter courtesy of IKON Office Solutions. Final statistics are available 30 minutes after the game.

Transmission Facilities: A limited number of phones are available in the Media Centre.

Food and Beverage Service: A pre-game meal is available in the Media Centre 60 minutes prior to kick-off at a cost of $5 per person. Receipts will be issued. Soft drinks and coffee are available throughout the game. Pre-game Coaches Press Conference(s) are held in the media room located immediately outside the Edmonton Eskimo Dressing Room. Enter through the Fitness Centre on Level 3 of Commonwealth Stadium. The Eskimo dressing room is open to all media following the "walk-thru" practice one day prior to the game.

Post Game Interviews: Eskimo Head Coach Don Matthews will hold a post game news conference in the Eskimo Media Room following each home game. The Eskimo Dressing Room will be open following Don Matthews post game news conference.

Game Day Photographers: Sideline photography during Eskimo home games is limited to working media on assignment for a recognized outlet. Free-lance photographers must provide the Edmonton Eskimo Football Club with ten (10) 8×10's and twenty (20) 5×7 prints. Working media credentials must be displayed at all times.

Players and Coaches Interviews must be arranged through Dave Jamieson - Director of Communications and Marketing.

Radio: All Edmonton Eskimo games are carried on 630 CHED. Play by Play: Bryan Hall Colour: John Farlinger Eskimo pre-game show on 630 CHED starts one hour prior to kick-off.

June 12, 2000

Dear Quarterback Guys:

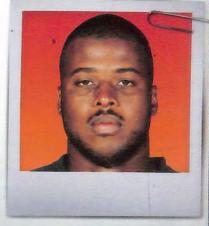

I would like to apologize in advance for all the pain and suffering I'm going to put you through this season. You'll have to excuse me for how ridiculous I'm going to make you look as I stomp all over your body and sack you over and over again. It's nothing personal, because I'm sure you are all very nice men, but I only thought it polite to forewarn you that I'm coming. Sorry again.

Your friend.

Malvin

#46 Malvin Hunter, Defensive End

P.S. I've enclosed a picture of myself so you can get used to it, because it's going to be in your face all season long.
